

ARTICLE 91-1600: AMENDMENTS

Section 91-1601. Amendments

The regulations, restrictions and boundaries established by this Local Law may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed or modified or repealed by Local Law. Such amendment, supplement, change, modification or repeal can be made on a motion by the Town Board or on petition or on the recommendation of the Planning Board and the Board of Appeals after a public hearing and due notice thereof. Every such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Planning Board for a report and recommendation prior to the public hearing thereon. Additionally any and all amendments shall be referred to the Chautauqua County Planning Board in accordance with the provisions of State law.
